Clockwise from the center: Siel Phantomhive, Finnian, Mei-Rin, Balcroy, Sebastian and Tanaka. The manga and anime series Black Butler has an extensive cast of characters created by Jana Toboso. The series takes place in England during the reign of Queen Victoria. This follows Sebastian Michaelis, a demonic butler, obliged to serve ten-year (later thirteen-year-old) Count Siel Phantomhive because of the contract he signed with Ciel. Ciel connects Sebastian with his will to avenge the people who humiliated and tortured him and killed his family to make them suffer the same pain. The main characters of Sebastian Michaelis Voiced: Toshiyuki Morikawa (first CD drama), Daisuke Ono (anime and second CD drama) (Japanese); J. Michael Tatum (English) Film Adaptation: Hiro Mizushima Sebastian Michaelis (セバチャミカエリチヤ, Sebastian Michaelis) is the title Black He is a demon butler from the Phantomhive family and acts as the bodyguard of Ciel Phantomhive. Being a butler is a work to which he is fully committed, following the orders of Siel with great loyalty and speed. He likes to challenge Siel and doesn't seem to worry much about his well-being at times, insulting and irritating him to see his reaction. However, there are times that he shows concern for Ciel's life, such as when he was worried when Ciel had an asthma attack, and again later on when he had a panic attack. Sebastian loves felines in general, saying he can't anticipate or control his own reactions and feelings when in the presence of one. As a demon, he also showed that he is extremely ruthless, sadistic and manipulative towards his opponents and is intrigued by the behavior and attitude of people, as he finds them interesting because of their insatiable greed. He is highly skilled in almost everything and copes with every task, no matter how impossible it may be, as well as any problem arising from the mistakes of other employees, with ease. Because he is a demon bound by Faust's contract, he must abide by Ciel's will, and his contract mark is on his left hand, allowing Sebastian to find Ciel wherever he is, when the sign of Ciel's contract is on display. In turn, Ciel can summon and give orders to Sebastian. His age is considered secret. Siel Phantomhive voiced: Miyuki Sawashiro (first CD drama), Maaya Sakamoto (anime and second dramatic CD) (Japanese); Bryna Palencia (English) - Count Siel Phantomhive (シエ ファトムハウヴ, Shira Phantommuhaiva) is a protagonist and business-savvy, selfish thirteen-year-old (12 to chapter 14) and head of the Phantomhive family after the death of his parents, Vincent and Rachel Dulles-Phantom. He runs Funtom, a company that produces toys and sweets, with the later addition of a food branch after winning the Royal Order. His right eye, which is usually covered with a black eye patch, carries a pentagram, a sign of the Faustian contract he made with the demon Sebastian. Like previous counts in his family, Ciel is now known as the Royal Guard Dog, tasked with eliminating criminals and solving cases in the underworld for Queen Victoria. After the death of his parents and before meeting Sebastian, he was enslaved by a cult and had to become a ritual victim. During the sacrificial session, Ciel's executioners sacrificed his twin, causing Sebastian to be summoned. Ciel contracted Sebastian instead of cult, and then ordered the demon to kill all the people in the room. From that day on, Ciel dedicated his life to finding people responsible for the humiliation and suffering he had endured. During the time that he was captured, a brand was burned in his back, which he did not want anyone to see. As a nobleman, Ciel presents himself as a proud, solemn and mature boy. Because of his past misfortunes, he rarely and mercilessly when dealing with enemies. However, Ciel occasionally expressed concern for the well-being of a few people close to him. Despite his stoic behavior, Ciel exhibits traits befitting a young man for his age, such as his love of sweets and games. Thus, Ciel is smart, naughty, lazy, and competitive, doing his best to win the match. Although physically weak, Ciel owns the use of weapons, and always carries one to protect himself. In French, his name means heaven. During the Blue Cult Arch, Ciel was found to have an older twin brother, the real Ciel Phantomhive, who died before the manga. Having received the identity and the title of brother, his real name is currently unknown. The supporting characters of phantomhive manor phantomhive belongs to the Phantomhive family and is located outside London. The Phantomhive family is a secret executive body controlled directly by Queen Victoria, and is often referred to as aristocrats of evil and The Watch Dogs of the queen. They are instructed to eliminate all that bothers the queen by any means. They are able to control and control the underworld of the United Kingdom in order to avoid any information about its existence to the public. Thus, the position of the Phantomhive family as the queen's watchdog is known only to a select few in polite society. The current head of the family is Ciel Phantomhive, the son of Count Vincent and Countess Rachel Phantomhive, who were killed and their original estate burned down (the estate in which Ciel currently lives with his servants is an exact replica of the original estate). In addition to the services they provide to the queen, the Phantomhive family runs a well-known toy and confectionery company called the Funtom Company. The estate currently has five servants, but their positions as servants are front for their real work protecting the Phantomhive estate, as well as protecting Ciel, to whom they are deeply committed. Baldroy serves as a cook, Finnian serves as a gardener, and Mei-Rin serves as a maid. All three were personally selected and trained by Sebastian to carry out their duties. Tanaka served under Earl Vincent and Lady Rachel as their butler, but was not seen doing any work during his service under Ciel, in which his job is to house a steward. Sebastian Michaelis, a demon, acts as a butler after Tanaka. The snake is the newest addition, and acts as a footman. Lady Rachel and Earl Phantomhive have one sister; both married and became part of other notable families before the start of the series. Rachel's sister, Angelina Dulles (nicknamed Madame Red), married the Burnett family. She committed the murder of Jack the Ripper and was murdered by her accomplice, Grell Sutcliffe, after her exposure. Vincent's sister, Marquise Frances Midford, married The Marquis of Midford and doña Элизабет, помолвленна Сиэлем Фантомхивом. Балдрой (Badro, Badro, Voiced: Rikiya Koyama (CD drama), Hiroki Tochi (anime); Ian Sinclair is an American-born home cook. He rarely produces anything edible as he uses weapons such as flamethrowers to cook, believing that cooking is an art requiring explosions. Sebastian believes that everything he creates consists of charcoal and carcinogens. Baldroy continues cooking to learn how to slow down as he claims cooking requires patience to master, which was something he was not used to during his years in the army. When he was a soldier, his entire platoon was destroyed, leaving him the only survivor. Sebastian found Baldry on the battlefield after his comrades fell and offered him a job. While scary at cooking, he has shown he is able to take advantage of his surroundings, such as using fine flour to create a blast. Thanks to his experience as a soldier, he takes command of the servants when Ciel and Sebastian are away from the estate. Like Finnian and Mei-Rin, he provides most of the comic relief in the series. Finnian (フィニア, Finian) Voiced by: Motoki Takagi (CD drama), Yaki Kaji (anime) (Japanese); Jason Librech is a German gardener. However, it seems every time he aspires to the garden, he collapses as a result of an accident caused by his clumsiness. He is portrayed as an innocent, upbeat character who loves his job but is called an idiot Sebastian for destroying everything he touches, despite being warned to take caution in advance. Finnian demonstrates the exploits of superhuman power, which he tries to suppress, fearing to harm others and risking sabotage of his work. The sequence, S-012, is tattooed on the back of his head and is usually covered with his straw hat, which was given to him by Ciel. In addition, Ciel bestowed the name Finian, naming it after Fionn Mac Cumhaile of Fenian Cycle when he came to work. He works as a gardener to spend as much time outdoors as possible, because before working for Ciel, he was the subject of an experiment that was kept locked up and forced to kill his friends. Like Baldroy and Mei-Rin, it provides most of the comic relief in the series. Mei-Rin (メイリン, Meirin) Voiced by Fumiko Orikasa (CD drama), Emiri Kato (anime) (Japanese); Monica Rial (English) is a housekeeper of Chinese descent. Mei-Rin has extreme binocular sharpness and received a pair of round glasses from Ciel, which she cherishes and refuses to give up. Mei-Rin's vision prevents her from properly viewing objects at close range, which makes her clumsy in carrying out her duties; however, Sebastian believes that her main problem is her intelligence, not her vision. She is in love with Sebastian as she blushes when she is in his presence and even clumsily when Sebastian looks. She's pretty superstitious, recognizes that soft spot for horror stories. Mei-Rin is a professional sniper and because of her acute binocular vision, she does not require the opportunity to help her. She is also physically as she can use a sniper rifle as a pistol and keeps hundreds loaded at once to reduce recharge time. She speaks in a high tone of a whiny voice, except when she uses her sniper rifles she speaks in a deep stern voice. Like Baldroy and Finnian, it provides much of a comic relief. Tanaka (タナカ) Voiced by: Mugihiito (CD drama), Shunji Fujimura (anime) (Japanese); R. Bruce Elliott is a Japanese-born steward. He was present when Ciel's parents were killed and stabbed in the back while trying to protect Ciel. As a result, he rarely speaks or does any work, but is always considered to participate in the antics of other servants. Sebastian seems to respect him the most of all the staff. It is usually seen drinking from a Japanese cup of tea and is usually seen in a super deformed form. Despite its appearance, Tanaka is able to kill intruders without much effort. Prior to Sebastian's appointment as Siel's butler, Tanaka served as the chief butler in the Phantomhive family for Father Ciel. He is very loyal and kind to Siel, and strict when it comes to his duties. Unlike other servants, Tanaka is astute in Sebastian's actions, as well as for the reasons behind which they stand. When Sebastian appears to be killed, Ciel again appoints Tanaka as chief butler, a position he performs almost as well as Sebastian. As the series progresses, it is seen less often in super deformed form. During the Arch of the Emerald Witch, Tanaka showed skill by slicing bullets fired at him with a sword, silently approaching his goal; however, he admits that at his age, he cannot continue such strenuous activities for long. Snake (ユネク, Suniku) Voiced: Takuma Erashima (Japanese); Spike Spencer (English) Snake was the last first-string member of Noah's Ark Circus and it is a snake/human hybrid. He has always seen at least one snake draped around his shoulders and has various snake skin patterns covering various patches all over his body. His sentences always end in the name of one of his many snakes, indicating that he is uncomfortable communicating with others if through his pets. In addition, the Snake will use a special accent and tone depending on what kind of snake it speaks for, reflecting the character the Snake associates with it. The snake was taken as a family member after the first line of members when they freed it from the travel freak show. He swore revenge on his dead comrades after Ciel and Sebastian got rid of them all, leaving him alone again. The snake sought out the Phantomhive estate using clothes left by Siel and a little unexpected help from Prince Soma. Once things are done Murder in the mansion was uncovered. The Snake was uncovered as the thirteenth guest caught by Sebastian hiding in the grounds of the mansion in an attempt to take the take life. Instead of killing him, Ciel welcomes him as an addition to his servants, making him a footman of the Phantomhive family. He still calls Siel and Sebastian Smile and Black (their stage names when infiltrating Noah's Ark Circus), respectively. All his snakes take names in honor of famous Victorian writers and poets: Wordsworth, Emily, Goethe, Oscar, Wilde, Webster, Bronte, Donn and Keats. Former members of Phantomhive Earl Vincent Phantomhive voiced: Kazyuki Okitsu (Japanese); Robert McCollum (English) Earl Vincent Phantomhive (ヴィセト ファセトムハウヴ, Vincent Phantommuhaiva) Vincent was the late Earl of Phantomhive, husband of Rachel Dulles and late father of Ciel. Vincent was once the prefect of the Sapphire Owl dormitory at Weston College. According to Tanaka, Vincent will never lose his temper, and Dietrich notes that Ciel also began to bleed some of Vincent's more unpleasant traits. He also bears a striking resemblance to Sebastian Michaelis. Countess Rachel Dulles-Phantomhive voiced by Kane Utake (Japanese); Bryna Palencia (English) Rachel Dulles-Phantomhive (レチエ ファトムハウヴ, Reicher Phantommuhaiva) Rachel was Vincent's wife and Siel's late mother, whom he looks a lot like. According to her younger sister Angelina Dulles, Rachel was a beautiful kind and cheerful woman, despite her poor health. Ciel inherited her asthma as they are both allergic to cats. Ciel Phantomhive Ciel Ciel is considered a real Ciel Phantomhive and the older brother of the main character Siel Phantomhive. Ciel was revived by the Undertaker in the Blue Cult Arch, died before the events of the manga as part of a ritual to summon the demon. Nobles Madame Red (マダム レド, Madame Reddo) Voiced by: Masako Katsuki (CD drama), Romy Park (anime) (Japanese); Lydia McKay (English) Madame Red, born Angelina Dulles (アジェリナダレ, Angeron Daresu), was Siel's aunt. As the name suggests, Angelina was known for her red looks and clothes. Initially, she hated her red hair, which she inherited from her father, until Vincent Phantomhive said he loved it. Angelina fell in love with Vincent, but was distraught when she found out that her sister was marrying him. Madame Red later married Baron Burnett, who treated her with love and gentleness, stating that he did not mind that she had feelings for another. She obtained a medical license against her parents' wishes and practiced at the Royal London Hospital. After the accident in which her husband died, her womb and unborn child had to be removed. This caused her great disagreement as a doctor because she regularly had abortions on prostitutes because they felt having a child was troublesome. Unable to bear her suffering at the end of so many pregnancies when she herself wanted one so bad, she began killing her patients with Grell Sutcliffe and the two became known as Jack the Ripper. However, she was not in kill Ciel because she sees him as her son, causing Grell to turn her on and kill her. Lau (劉, Rau, Pinyin: Lio) and Ran Mao (藍貓, Ranmao, Pinyin: Lan Mao, illuminated Blue Cat) voiced by Koji Yusa, Sayuri Yahagi (Japanese); Jerry Jewell is a Chinese nobleman, president of the British branch of a Chinese trading company known as Kong-Rong and a friend of the Phantomhive family. He is the head of the Shanghai Mafia, Tsing Bang (Green Gang in Chinese) and runs an opium lair. He always smiles, and his eyes are always closed, except for brief moments. Lau often agrees to do things before finding out what's going on, and jumps into conversations with useful information only to later find out that he was clueless on the subject. Although he acts carefree, funny, and easy going, he can be very cold-blooded and enigmatic, ready to go further than Ciel would, for example, with Harold West and his wife Mina killed because they cheated in the curry competition. He is always seen with his personal killer, Ran Mao, a Chinese, doll as a girl called his sister, though not by blood. Although she is very rarely spoken and portrayed as emotionless, she is very loyal to him. Soma Asman Kadár ('ママアカダラ, Sama Asuman Kadáru) Voiced by Shinnosuke Tachibana (Japanese); Christopher Ayres is a 17-year-old Indian prince and twenty-sixth child of Raja Bengal. Unlike Ciel, he is spoiled and uses the fortune of his parents for his personal needs and blames others for all his problems. During his time in England, Soma begins to mature, although he still possesses childish traits. Upon learning that his servant Mina hated him for his ignorance and his self-absorbed personality, Soma decided to stay with Ciel and learn to act like a gentleman and even proclaim himself Ciel's best friend. Soon after, Ciel has him and Agni manage his townhouse in London, but they sometimes return to the Phantomhive manor house for visits. Soma is constantly worried about Ciel and becomes very happy when he can help him. Soma often scares Sebastian when he hides behind others when talking to him. Agni (アグニ, Aguni) Voiced by: Hiroki Yasumoto (Japanese); Patrick Seitz (English) Agni was a servant of Prince Soma, whom he saw and worshipped as a god. Agni was once a nobleman named Arshad, born as Brahman, the highest caste, among the caste hierarchy of Hinduism, by which he was considered a saint, and he was allowed to serve the divine. Agni (Arshad) used his strength and wealth for his own desires to the fact that he had to be hanged for his crimes. Before his execution, Prince Soma offered him a new life and a name, spilling the former me. He was able to fight on a par with Sebastian while using foil fencing, a feat that briefly makes Ciel wonder if he is a grim reaper until Sebastian confirms that he was a man. The source of his prowess came from his devotion to Soma, and Agni cared for him deeply. Looks like he was able to see the good in Phantomhive Manor staff and assigned them tasks where their skills would be used. He considered Sebastian his friend, which surprises Sebastian, as no one has ever called him that before, although that did not stop him from ignoring Sebastian's attempts to prevent him from surrendering for his crimes. Sebastian also appreciates Agni, although Agni was modest when he praised his abilities. He lived with Soma in The Siel's townhouse and ran it. Elizabeth Midford (エリザベス・ミッドフォード, Erisabesu Middofudo) Voiced by: Yukari Tamura (Japanese); Cherami Lee (English) is the daughter of Francis and Alexis Leon Midford, Edward's younger sister, fiancee and cousin of Ciel. Elizabeth is often called Lizzie for brevity. Elizabeth is extremely girly, energetic and deeply devoted to Ciel, whom she loves with all her heart and wants to see him smile again. She only tries to look cute in front of Ciel because of the comment he made about not wanting a strong and scary girl to be his wife when they were kids. Although it looks as though she can't keep her in battle, it was revealed later that she was a fencing prodigy when she was about to be killed by a Bizarre doll, and that she hid her abilities for Ciel's sake. Francis Midford (フランシス・ミッドフォード, Furansis Middofudo) Voiced by: Atsuko Tanaka (Japanese); Elizabeth Maxwell (English) Was born Frances Phantomhive, she is Aunt Ciel and younger sister Vincent. She is married to Alexis Leon Midford and mother Elizabeth and Edward. Although she is strict, critical and sometimes intimidating to Ciel (and Sebastian, who is even afraid of her and impressed with her abilities), she cares deeply about Siel and her family. Frances is against men having long bangs, so she usually forces Ciel and Sebastian (and then Snake) to take a straight back hairstyle. Like the rest of the Midford family, she is a swordsman.com. Alexis Leon Midford (アレクシス・レオ・ミッドフォード, Arekus Leon Middofudo) Voiced by: Jouji Nakata (Japanese); Jeremy Schwartz (English) Marquis Alexis Leon Midford is the leader of the British Knights and Uncle Siel on marriage, as well as the father of Elizabeth and Edward. Unlike his wife, he is carefree and slightly oblivious, though he puts on the facade of a calm, silent and harsh man. He once attended Weston College with Vincent and Didrich, where he was the latter's. As head of the British Knights and like the rest of the Midford family, he is an expert fencingman. Khlos (クロス, Kuroausu) Voiced by: Daishiro Hano (Japanese); Christopher Sabath (English) Trash is a nobleman and an old friend of Vincent. Although he lives in Italy, Clalus loves to travel a lot and visits London from time to time when he is called up. As part of the Phantomhive family's network of informants he works closely with Siel, whom he has known since childhood. Thus, Ciel looks at him as an uncle and kind and polite to him. In turn, Hlaus is very carefree and welcoming in the presence of Siel, and he is always willing to do favors for him. Diderich (ディーリヒ, Dedorih) Voiced by: Kenji Hamada (Japanese); Mark Stoddard (Season 1), Anthony Bowring (English) Diderich is a German nobleman and childhood friend of Vincent, since their school years at Weston College, where he was made a permanent of Vincent after losing the stakes on him, thus establishing their lifelong affiliation to each other. After Vincent's death, he continues to be part of the Phantomhive family's network of informants in the underworld. Even from school years Diderich has always been a strict, dignified and honorable man. However, he also showed that short-tempered when provoked, easily irritable and impatient. He seems to have gained a significant amount of weight after Vincent's death. He comes to the aid of Siel, when Ciel goes to Germany by queen Victoria to investigate a series of strange deaths. The gloomy reapers are the Dark Reapers of the supernatural, divine beings who are responsible for deciding whether the soul live or die, and documenting the events surrounding each death. So far, seven Reapers have been introduced: Rogue Reaper, Undertaker, Grell Sutcliffe, Ronald Knox, William T. Spears, and most recently, Luder, Sasha, and Othello. Each reaper owns a scythe (some of which didn't even have to exist during that time period, such as a chainsaw or lawnmower). All Grim Reapers wear glasses because they are all terribly short-sighted. A common feature among gloomy reapers is their chartreuse of eye phosphorescence. All the Gloomy Reapers were people who committed suicide, and sentenced to watch over people die indefinitely until the sin of photographing their own lives is not forgiven by heaven. Grell Sutcliffe (グレーリュトクリフ, Gueru Sotokurifou) Voiced by Jun Fukuyama (Japanese); Daniel Fredrik (English) Grell (also spelled as Grelle) Sutcliffe is a transgender woman Grim Reaper who originally worked as The Butler of Madame Red. Grell and Madame Red formed a partnership in which they killed prostitutes. Grell owns the Death Spirit as a chainsaw. After killing Madame Red, when she refused kill Ciel, Grell before him her red coat for the rest of the series. Grella is attracted to Sebastian (to Sebastian's horror) and other characters in the series, especially William T. Spears. Grell is quite cunning, bright, ruthless, bloodthirsty and somewhat sadistic. Like the Grim Reaper, Grell is a capable fighter and is equally capable of fighting against Sebastian. The Undertaker (葬儀屋(アタテカ), Andateka) Voiced by Juniti Suvabe (Japanese); John Swasey (English) The Undertaker is a former Grim Reaper and funeral director in London. His identity as a rogue Grim Reaper was not revealed until later in the series where he admitted he stood Resurrection Resurrection known as bizarre dolls. Once this true nature is exposed, the Undertaker takes on a more antagonistic role in the series. Prior to that, he had been an informant for the Phantomhive family for many years. Unlike other Grim Reapers, it doesn't seem to require the need for glasses. Like Sebastian, The Undertaker has a fixation on people as well as the basics of life. Despite his eccentric and comic personality, The Undertaker is a manipulative, ruthless and mysterious man. However, he showed taking care of Ciel deeply as well as for the Phantomhive family. He was willing to kill Sebastian because he believed Sebastian was making Ciel miserable and had also revived his twin brother in secret. William T. Spears (ヴィリヤム・T・スピアズ, Viriyamu Thi Supazu) Voiced: Noriaki Sugiyama (Japanese); Barry Yandell (English) William T. Spears is part of the management chamber of the Grim Reaper Dispatch. Unlike his colleagues, William is strict and obedient and despises when he is forced to work overtime repeatedly because of the failures of Grell Sutcliffe or Ronald Knox or disaster. William has a hatred for demons, especially Sebastian, who seems to be his rival when they meet. William's Death Scythe is a pair of garden trimmers in which he is supposed to straighten his glasses and hit Grell on the head. William always comes prepared and seems to always be watching and/or observing things around him, as this is reflected in his purely cold logic about events related to his career. Ronald Knox (ロナルド・ノックス) Voiced: Kenn (Japanese); Joel McDonald (English) Ronald Knox is a subordinate under Grell Sutcliffe. Like Grell, he's pretty calm and calm, though he treats his duties like a Grim Reaper more seriously than Grell does. He apparently has trouble arriving on time, but he seems interested in finding a way to do his job quickly. His Scythian death was modified to look like a lawnmower, which he said was done on the principle of overtime avoidance. He appears briefly during the Noah's Ark Circus storyline to help William T. Spears in the shower collection, and then appears on the campaign with Grell to investigate reports of moving corpses. Luder (ラドー, Rudoga) Luder is a member of the German branch of Grim Reapers, who works with Sasha. Like his colleague William, he is obedient and does not like to work overtime. His Death Scythe takes on the appearance of a hedge trimmer. Sasha (サシヤ, Asha) Sasha is a member of the German branch of Grim Reapers, who works with Luder. Sasha is an enthusiastic person, with a tendency to be inattentive, especially when absorbed in reading something interesting. Sasha is interested in human affairs and their advancement throughout history, bored to the point of expressing excitement about the possibility of global war. Unlike most gloomy reapers, Sasha seems to be enjoying her job as a believing it to be a calling. Circus Noah's Ark (ケヴィ, Keruwini) Voiced by: Chafurin (Japanese); Mike McFarland (English) Baron Kelvin was the creator of the Circus of Noah's Ark and was named Father by the performers of the first line. With the exception of his left eye, his entire face was covered in bandages after hiring a doctor to perform the surgery as a way to make himself more attractive to Ciel, only to believe that it was all a waste when he heard Phantomhives had been killed. He seemed to be obsessed with children and used his circus as a way to kidnap them. He then brainwashed them and made them act as his servants and as performers for his private circus. However, he didn't care about their well-being and even found it interesting when they die horribly while performing dangerous stunts in a show without any preparation. He was originally a good philanthropist, but after meeting With, he became fascinated with him and was somehow associated with the mysterious organization that captured Ciel after the death of his parents. Kelvin also funded the study of the Doctor's prosthetic limbs and, after discovering that Ciel was still alive, recreated the room where the organization caged and tortured Ciel before trying to sacrifice them in a brutal ritual. Upon learning of this, Ciel killed him and ordered Sebastian to burn down his mansion. Joker (ジョカ, Jaco) Voiced by: Mamoru Miura (Japanese); Matthew Mercer (English) The Joker was the leader of the Ring of the Circus Noah's Ark when he travels, and served Baron Kelvin as a butler when he is on the estate. He was recognized for his prosthetic skeleton arm and was originally portrayed as a very blunt man. However, he has been strict and serious when it comes to his duties. Although he disagreed with some of Baron Kelvin's decisions, he followed every order given to him because he wanted to protect his brothers and sisters in the house, which Kelvin claimed he cared about if they all did what they were told. The Joker was unaware that the bones of the abducted children were being used by the Doctor as a prosthetic limb material, and did not know that the working house never existed. He, like every first-line performer, called Baron Kelvin the father because Baron Kelvin removed him from the streets of the East End as a child and raised him in addition to providing artificial limbs. He died of a massive hemorrhage, Sebastian chopped off the other hand while trying to protect Baron Kelvin from Siel. It is voiced in Japanese and by Dr. (先生, Sesei), voiced by Satoshi Mikami (Japanese); Alex Organ (English) The doctor was a kind, wheelchair-bound doctor who cared for circus performers. However, it later transpired that the trick is how he can actually walk and is quite sadistic. He hand-carved prosthetic limbs used by some of the first line performers from an unknown strong material that he develops through his research funded by Baron Kelvin. This material later that special bone china made of bone bones Children. He Kelvin use his power and money to provide him with the resources needed to perfect his craft and kidnap the children he uses. He was killed by Sebastian on Ciel's orders. The Beast (ビト, Busuto) Voiced by: Jaco Kaida (Japanese); Tia Ballard is one of the first string members of Noah's Ark Circus and his animal trainer. The beast grew up with other members of the first row in the East End until Baron Kelvin found them and took them off the streets. The animal does not have a right leg, which was replaced by a prosthetic limb. However, his devotion to Calvin was not as deep as the Joker was, and she was willing to leave him to live a life with the Joker she loved, even though it was unresponsive. One night, when Sebastian escaped, he seduced the Beast to use it as a last resort to obtain information about Kelvin. She was later killed by Balkroy when she and other members of the first-line circus (except For The Dolls and Snakes) invaded the Phantomhive estate to kidnap Siel (not knowing he was not there at the time). Dagger (ダガ, Dag) Voiced by Nobuhiko Okamoto (Japanese); Michael Sinterniklaas is a knife thrower for Noah's Ark. The dagger is missing his right leg, and has an artificial one made by a doctor that he wore instead. The dagger was a bright, dramatic, energetic boy who almost constantly smiled. He seemed to have great love, bordering on obsession, for the beast he always called Sis or Big Sis, and was always willing to express his feelings for her, often serenading her or offering her gifts. He continued these actions even when the Beast was not around and despite the lack of signs of interest from her. Like the other members of the first line, he lived in an alley in the East End. He missed his right leg from birth, common that tied him up with others. One day Baron Kelvin found them in an alley and invited them to live in his mansion. After a while there, they decided to start a circus, and the Joker gave him the stage name dagger, which he at first didn't seem very happy about. He was later killed by Balkroy when he and other members of the first-line circus (except for the doll and the snake) invaded the Phantomhive estate to kidnap Siel (not knowing that he was not there at the time). Peter (ピタ, Pitaa) Voiced: Yuki Tai (Japanese); Vic Mignolia (English) Peter worked with Wendy as a trapeze artist at Noah's Ark Circus. He took deep care of Wendy, as it was shown that he was always there for her. Peter was prone to violence, anger easily and often makes rude, sarcastic remarks. Despite his penchant for anger easily, he showed clever, for example, when he gave up attacking the Finns to pull out a more serious threat. Like Wendy, Peter's growth slowed, trapping them in children's bodies. Peter grew up with other members of the first row in an alley in the East End. After a while decided to create a circus, and Wendy and Peter formed a trapeze act. He was later killed by Mei-Rin when he and other members of the first-line circus (except for the doll and the snake) invaded the Phantomhive estate to kidnap Siel (not knowing that he was not there at the time). Dr. (ドクター, Dokutā) Voiced by: Mayumi Shintani (Japanese); Rachel Robinson (English) Wendy worked with Peter as a trapeze artist at Noah's Ark Circus. At first it seemed soft, and usually postponed to Peter to make the most of the conversation. However, when she spoke, she presented herself in a mature manner, such as when she comforted the beast. She cared deeply about other members of the first line circus, perhaps more than she cared about Baron Kelvin, and seems to be most attached to Peter, as she is almost always in his presence. Wendy grew up in an alley in the East End with other members of the first row circus and was picked up by Baron Kelvin to live on his estate. Like Peter, Wendy's growth slowed, trapping them in children's bodies. After a while they decided to create a circus, and Wendy and Peter formed a trapeze act. She was later killed by Mei-Rin when she and other members of the first-line circus (except Dolls and Snakes) invaded the Phantomhive estate to kidnap Ciel (not knowing that he was not there at the time). Jumbo (ジャボ, Janbo) Voiced by: Ryōkan Koyanagi (Japanese); Christopher Sabath (English) Jumbo was Noah's Ark Circus fire eater. Jumbo, as indicated in the name, was a very big man who seems to have a slight foreboding. Jumbo seemed to have a voice of reason among the members of the circus, as he was very level headed and not inclined to give in to his emotions. However, he was very kind and generous, once stopping his job to help Dagger play with other children in the past. Despite the fact that he was willing to kill people to follow his orders, he seemed genuinely dissatisfied with the fact that he had to do so. He said his problem was his abnormal growth. Like other members of the first line, he was picked up by Baron Kelvin and came to live in his estate. When they decided to create a circus, he became a fire eater. He was later killed by the Finns when he and other members of the first-line circus (except for the Dolls and Snakes) invaded the Phantomhive estate to kidnap Siel (not knowing that he was not there at the time). Doll (ドール, Duru) Voiced by Ayahi Takagaki (Japanese); Mikaela Krantz (English) was the first string of the Circus of Noah's Ark, and held the position of a tightrope walker. When she wasn't performing, she pretended to be a new, male, second string member named Freckles (そばかす, Sobakasu) because she slept better when she shared a room with someone else, something the first string of performers shouldn't do. The doll was friendly and hospitable, having a conversation with Siel after they were called by their team mates. She was a little naive, though, easily believing Ciel's lies, what that Circus artists reprimanded her. She was extremely loyal to the other members of the first line and treated them all as a family. They say that the reason for the loss of the left eye is that the parents raised it too sharply and deformed it. One day Baron Kelvin found them in an alley and allowed them to live in his estate. Some time after that, they decided to create a circus and the Joker gave them all the stage names, including the doll that initially tried to drop the name. She was later killed by Sebastian on Ciel's orders. Londoners Azzuro Vanel (アズロ・バネル, Azaro Baneru) Voiced by: Kosuke Toriumi (Japanese); Brian Mathis (English) Azzuro Vanel was an Italian mafia drug dealer from the Ferro family who works under the guise of a trading company known as the Ferro Company. To confirm that Azzuro was a drug dealer that Ciel was looking for, he invited the former to his estate to play pool with several others. During his engagement, Ciel claimed that he had obtained drugs that Hlaus had purchased for him in Italy, prompting Azzuro to kidnap Siel on the same day. Sebastian was able to discover Azzuro's mansion and effortlessly managed to save Ciel through Azzuro guards. After Azzuro desperately tried to persuade Sebastian to come to work with him, he was killed last. Aleister Camera (アレスター・カメラ, Aretsuto Chenbu) Voiced by: Tatsuhisa Suzuki (Japanese); Todd Haberkorn (English) - Viscount Drift (ドト・爵, Doruto Shishaku), Aleister Chambers - a nobleman, known for his taste in fine art, wine and food, as well as its popularity among women. However, it is associated with many secret and occult societies and illegal businesses such as human trafficking. He once attended Weston College in the Scarlet Fox dormitory. Although he does not engage in any medical profession, he is licensed to have a doctor. Since Edgar Redmond is his nephew, it is implied that Alstair has at least one brother. It often appears as a comic relief. Paula (ポーラ, Pra) Voiced by: Yui Itsuki (Japanese); Jessica Kavanagh (English) Paula is Elizabeth's maid who accompanies her wherever she goes. Elizabeth and Paula have a close relationship, as Paula gives her advice and takes care of her. After the snow festival in the anime, Paula became obsessed with ringing bells throughout the rest of the series. Nina Hopkins (ニナ・ホプキンス) Nina Hopkins is a tailor who designs clothes for the servants of Ciel, Elizabeth and Siel. Although she doesn't care about Siel's servants, she loves Mei-Rin (to her horror). Despite her dramatic and noisy personality, she is a nice in her profession and has a radical view of fashion. Arthur Randall (アーチュラ・ランダル) Voiced by: Yutaka Aoyama (Japanese); John Gremillion (English) Arthur Randall is The Police Commissioner of Scotland Yard. As leader of Scotland Yard, he is aware of Ciel's role as the queen's watchdog and despises whenever Alstair has done something as nothing more than a brat and considers the Phantomhive family to be inquisitive to deal with events. Fred Abberlin (フレド・アーブラーン) Voiced by: Hisayoshi Suganuma (Japanese); Jonathan Brooks is chief inspector of Scotland Yard. He works under Arthur Randall, and is the only officer at Scotland Yard, except for the commissioner, who knows about Ciel's identity as the queen's watchdog. He is a curious, righteous and somewhat meek man. While he can't despise Ciel, as Randall does, he's appalled by the fact that queen Victoria and Ciel have an arrangement that allows Ciel to settle cases in a dishonest way, despite the fact that it's the opposite of how Scotland Yard works. In the anime adaptation, he is portrayed differently (both in appearance and personality) and as someone who truly believes in the justice system. He wants to make London a place where it is safe to have a family, and plans to marry his pregnant bride. Like Ciel, he had to go through difficult times to reach his current situation. Despite this, Ciel describes him as a man who walks in the light while Ciel walks in the dark. At first, Abberline does not trust Siel and his position as the watchdog of the queen, but later joins him as an ally. He killed Lau, using his body as a human shield to protect Ciel. Harold West Jeb (ハロード・ウェスト・ジーベ) Voiced by: Yoshizumi Shimoyama (Japanese); Newton Pittman (English) Harold West Jeb, known as Harold West, was a well-known businessman who traded spices and tea leaves in India, and Mina's husband. He owned a general store called Harold Trading and a Hindu coffee shop called Harold West. Ciel met him at a party during the London season, an exchange that the former found unpleasant. West was arrogant, self-indulgent and unethical, and Ciel described him as a man who was disgustingly obsessed with status. In an attempt to win a curry contest to obtain a Royal Warrant, West hired Agni as his chef, and in return he and Mina would prevent Soma from finding out the truth about Mina's relationship with the West, because Soma assumed that West had kidnapped her when she willingly went with him to London to avoid her low social status. After losing the curry competition to Ciel's Funtom, West and Mina were then allegedly killed by Ran Mao on Lau's orders. Mina (ミナ, Mina) Voiced by: Jaco Goto (Japanese); Emily Gray (English) Mina was the wife of Harold West Jeb and formerly a servant of Soma, whom he had known since childhood. Soma adored her as an older sister, describing her as a beautiful, cheerful and kind woman. However, Mina secretly hated Soma, as she saw him as nothing more than a selfish boy, and wished to avoid her life in Servants. Servants. West came to India, Mina married him and returned with him to London. When Soma and Agni followed her (under the impression that she had been kidnapped), West and Mina signed an agreement with Agni in exchange for putting an act in front of Soma so as not to know the truth about her relationship with the West. Mina appeared at the Curry Fair, which took place at Crystal Palace after West lost the Royal Warrant to Ciel's Funtom Company. Despite this, Soma understood her reasons, sincerely apologized and thanked her for everything she had done for him. Mina and West were then allegedly killed by Ran Mao on Lau's orders. Arthur Conan Doyle (アーコナ・ドコネン・ドーリー) Voiced by: Shintaro Asanuma (Japanese); Talesin Jaffe (English) Arthur is an optometrist and aspiring author. He is one of ten children and a very observant and righteous man. As a fan of his stories, Ciel invites him to attend a banquet held at his Estate by Georg von Siemens, where he becomes a prominent figure in helping to solve the murders that took place there. After the truth about the events was revealed by Siel and Sebastian, Sebastian threatens to keep the identity of the true killer (Charles Gray). The status of Siel as the queen's watchdog and the true demon nature of Sebastian in secret. Georg von Siemens (ゲオク・オーフィジ, Georuku von Yamensu) Voiced by: Masashi Nogawa (Japanese); Tyson Rinehart (English) Georg von Siemens (based on the real Georg von Siemens) was a German banker and distant relative of Queen Victoria. He was something quite alcoholic and perverse, but was a prominent figure in the industrial development of Germany. At the queen's request, Ciel agreed to hold a banquet in George's honour during his visit to London to assess the growth of his business. However, in reality, it was a conspiracy established by the queen to get rid of him, to weaken the political power of Germany. After pretending to be dead initially as part of a joke he and Charles Grey performed on the Phantomhive estate, he was subsequently killed by Gray according to the queen's team. Carl Woodley (カウル・ウッドリー, Karu Uodori) Voiced: Toru Sakurai (Japanese); David Wald (English) Carl Woodley was president of the Woodley Diamond Polishing Company. Beneath his facade of being a brilliant and noisy man to the public, he was a secret arms dealer who sold illegal weapons obtained by his wealth in warring countries and the killer of Steiger Rose, president of the company that mined diamonds. Being involved in the underworld in London, he knew about Ciel's position as the watchdog of the queen. When Ciel planned to kill him for his crimes, he invited Woodley to a banquet he held on his estate to play Woodley as a scapegoat for the murder of Georg von Siemens. After double Charles' arrest, he was killed by Charles Gray when the latter was in a fit Patrick Phelps (パトリック・フェルプス) Voiced by: Takumi Watanabe (Japanese); Brandon McInnis was the son of a prominent shipbuilding magnate known as Blue Star Line and a board member of his trading division. Although timid and easily frightened, he was described as a capable businessman. Phelps was invited as a guest at the banquet, which Ciel hosted in honor of Georg von Siemens. After discovering Siemens' corpse on the first night at the Phantomhive estate, he was moved to Siel's bedroom (he was afraid to sleep in his room next to Siemens' estate) and was inadvertently killed by one of the snakes because the smell of Ciel was disguised above him. Although Sebastian was able to reach him shortly after the bite, he ignored Phelps' cries for help and left him to die. Grimsby Keen (グリムビキ, Gurimubusu Kyung) Voiced by: Eiichiro Tokumoto (Japanese); Aaron Roberts (English) Grimsby Keane is the director and former lover of Irene Diaz, who was twelve years his senior. He is passionate about his work as a director, and is famous for his mastery of his productions. He is usually a soft-tempered man and was protective of Irene during their relationship. He was one of the guests at The Ciel's banquet for Georg von Siemens. Some time after he left the Phantomhive estate, as soon as the murders were uncovered, he and Irene broke off their relationship. Irene Diaz (アリティア・イーレン・デュエイ) Voiced by Mana Miamoto (Japanese); Jamie Marks (English) Irene Diaz is a beautiful and famous opera singer (a reference to Irene Adler, who was also an opera singer in Arthur Conan Doyle's stories focusing on Sherlock Holmes) and was one of Siel's guests at his banquet for Georg von Siemens. She is a kind-hearted and well-mannered woman. She had previously been in a romantic relationship with Grimsby Keen, a man twelve years her junior. However, it maintains a youthful look by drinking a red substance extracted from the red perilla. Some time after they left the Phantomhive estate after the murders were uncovered, Irene and Grimsby broke off their relationship. She meets (albeit secretly) an actor from a rival theatre company. Royal Family of Victoria (ヴィクトリア女王, Victoria Joo) Voiced by: Ayako Kawasumi (Japanese); Alexis Tipton (English) The Queen of Great Britain and has been described as with great beauty and grace. She also loves Ciel very much as she calls him a dear boy and says she would visit him more often. After the death of prince Albert's husband and wife, she does not appear in public often and begins to cry hysterically when he is mentioned. She also has an effigy of Albert's puppet, whom she talks to whenever she is concerned and misses him. In the manga, she is seen as a smart and cunning woman, although she sometimes makes disturbing comments, such as when she says it would be wonderful if the Undertaker was revived where on their side. In the anime adaptation, she plays villainous roles, as she ordered the destruction of the Phantomhive family. She also almost tried to commit suicide out of grief until Ash approached her. Ash gave her youth and attacked her husband's body part from the neck to the collarbone area. Because the skin continues to rot, it causes her a lot of pain. When Ash tries to solve the problem, she refuses. Later she dies, and the doppleganger is placed on the throne. Staff John Brown (ジョン・ブラウン) John Brown is a servant of queen Victoria and a personal bodyguard. He is a stern, quiet and impulsive man, and he is deeply loyal to queen Victoria. He spends most of his time trying to comfort her with hysterical bouts of tears when she falls into depression over the death of her late husband. Double Charles (ダブル・チャーチル, Daburu Charuzu) Double Charles are two private secretaries of the queen and butlers. They seem to have a mysterious work related to the wishes of the queen. Charles Gray (チャーチル・グレイ, Charuzu Gurei) Voiced by: Ryōhei Kimura (Japanese); Clifford Chaplin (English) Earl Grey appears as a guest at a private party Ciel, where he becomes a prominent figure in helping to solve the murders that took place there. After the truth about the events was revealed by Siel and Sebastian, Sebastian threatens to keep the identity of the true killer (Charles Gray). The status of Siel as the queen's watchdog and the true demon nature of Sebastian in secret.
